Jill Daughhete joined KHC in August 2016 as a Quality Improvement Advisor for the Practice Transformation Network (PTN) in Kansas. She works in the field with practices to assess clinical performance, identify gaps in best practice and recommend methods to improve patient care processes and quality outcomes.

Daughhete most recently worked as a director of Revenue Cycle Management Services with Pulse Systems, Wichita, where she managed the organization's RCM Services in both the Wichita and Kansas City divisions. She has extensive experience as a practice administrator for physician practices with an emphasis in rural health programs. Daughhete has served on the Kansas Medical Group Managers Association Board of Directors and has held both chair and vice chair of the Kansas Association of Rural Health Clinics.

Daughhete attended Southwestern College in Winfield, KS, majoring in business administration and Spanish. She is a Certified Medical Practice Executive (CMPE), and is enrolled in the Fellowship Program with the American College of Medical Practice Executives (ACMPE).
